

Seafield Road

Hove

mishons

An exceptional four-bedroom Victorian terraced home, beautifully arranged over four floors and offering over 2,280 sq ft of elegant living accommodation in one of Hove's most desirable residential locations.

Situated on the ever-popular Seafield Road, this impressive property effortlessly combines timeless period character with high-quality contemporary finishes, creating a refined and versatile family home moments from the seafront.

The lower ground floor has been thoughtfully reconfigured to create a spectacular open-plan kitchen, living and dining space extending over 30 feet in length. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the room is flooded with natural light and centred around a beautifully appointed kitchen with generous island and sleek modern cabinetry. The sense of space and flow is exceptional, while carefully considered finishes and bespoke detailing give the home a sophisticated yet welcoming feel. A stylish bathroom/utility room completes this level.

The ground floor provides two elegant reception rooms with high ceilings, attractive proportions and large bay windows typical of the Victorian era. These versatile spaces offer the perfect balance of formal entertaining areas and relaxed family living, while retaining a wealth of charm and character throughout.

Arranged across the upper floors are four generous double bedrooms, including an impressive principal bedroom suite occupying much of the first floor.

The top floor offers a particularly spacious bedroom with adjoining bathroom and useful eaves storage, ideal as a guest suite, studio or private retreat. The overall layout provides excellent flexibility for modern family life, home working and multi-generational living. Throughout the property, the quality of finish is immediately apparent, with tasteful décor, carefully restored period features and high-specification contemporary upgrades seamlessly integrated throughout. From the elegant staircase and original proportions to the beautifully designed kitchen and bathrooms, every detail has been finished with style and attention to detail.

Seafield Road is one of central Hove's most sought-after addresses, ideally positioned just moments from Hove seafront, the promenade and the wide range of independent shops, cafés and restaurants on Church Road and Western Road. Hove Station is within easy reach, providing convenient links to London and beyond, while excellent local schools and nearby green spaces further enhance the area's enduring appeal.
