

Carlisle Road

Hove, BN3

Carlisle Road is one of Hove's flagship roads...

...and this property has the potential to be the best property on that road. With the Victorian charm and west facing garden buyers that are looking for a project must come and see this property.

With a combination of the ground floor and first floor flats (used to be an original house) there is potential to restore it to its original masterpiece.

We think with combining both floors together plus a stylish loft conversion (subject to planning permission if applicable) this would then be not only the biggest house on the road but most valuable in our opinion.

The original staircase still remains part of the first floor flat so restoring this into the main house again should be a simple process.

Most importantly, Carlisle Road has an amazing sense of community with families who have lived there for a long time which has kept an amazing community spirit. We think therefore some buyers would convert the property back to a whole house and then enjoy living there for many years.

Carlisle Road is just a stones throw from the beach but has the luxury of not having the slight road noise of the seafront road. Rockwater is just a few minutes walk away with its great food and drinks/coffee menu. The schooling both private and state are excellent and all within walking distance.
