

Goldstone Crescent

Hove

mishons

Nestled in the heart of a sought-after residential area, this beautifully presented detached family residence on Goldstone Crescent offers over 2,000 sq ft of well-balanced living space.

Perfectly suited for modern family life, the home boasts four generously sized bedrooms, two spacious reception rooms, a dedicated home office, and a versatile garden room—ideal as a gym, studio, or outdoor office.

Set on a south/west-facing tiered rear garden, the outdoor space is a standout feature. With landscaped levels, mature planting, and excellent sun exposure, it provides a peaceful retreat and perfect entertaining space. To the front, the property offers off-street parking for 3–4 vehicles, adding to the everyday convenience.

Inside, the layout flows effortlessly between rooms, with ample natural light, tasteful décor, and the flexibility to accommodate growing families or those who work from home.

Located just moments from Hove Park, residents enjoy immediate access to almost 40 acres of green space, ideal for recreation, dog walking, and weekend picnics. The area is also renowned for its excellent selection of local schools, including Aldrington CofE Primary, Hangleton Primary, The Bilingual Primary School – Brighton & Hove, and Goldstone Primary School. For older children, Blatchington Mill and Kings School are both within easy reach.
