Set in the sought-after Powis Square in Brighton, this beautifully presented one-bedroom apartment offers stylish, well-considered living in a fantastic central location.

Just a short walk from Brighton Station, the vibrant city centre, and the beach, it's perfectly positioned for commuters and lifestyle seekers alike.

The flat is thoughtfully laid out, with a bright and inviting living room that enjoys lovely views across the square, shared by the kitchen, which features sleek fittings and ample workspace. These views, coupled with large windows, flood the space with natural light throughout the day.

The bedroom is generously proportioned and features built-in wardrobes for excellent storage. A standout feature of the home is the chic black and brass bathroom — a sophisticated space with a boutique feel.

Decorated with flair and attention to detail, the property blends modern elegance with homely charm. Situated close to the popular cafés, restaurants, and bars of Seven Dials, this is a warm and welcoming community with everything on your doorstep.

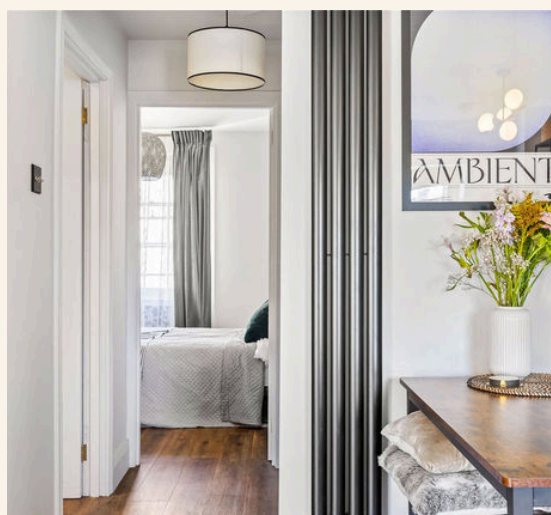

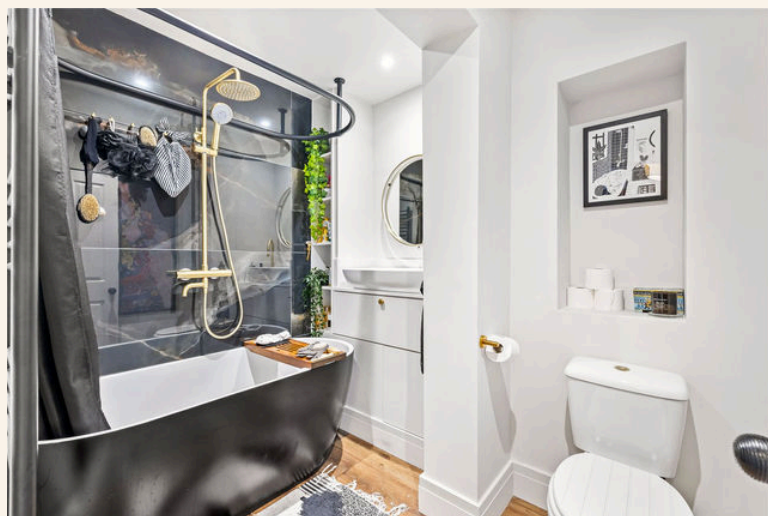

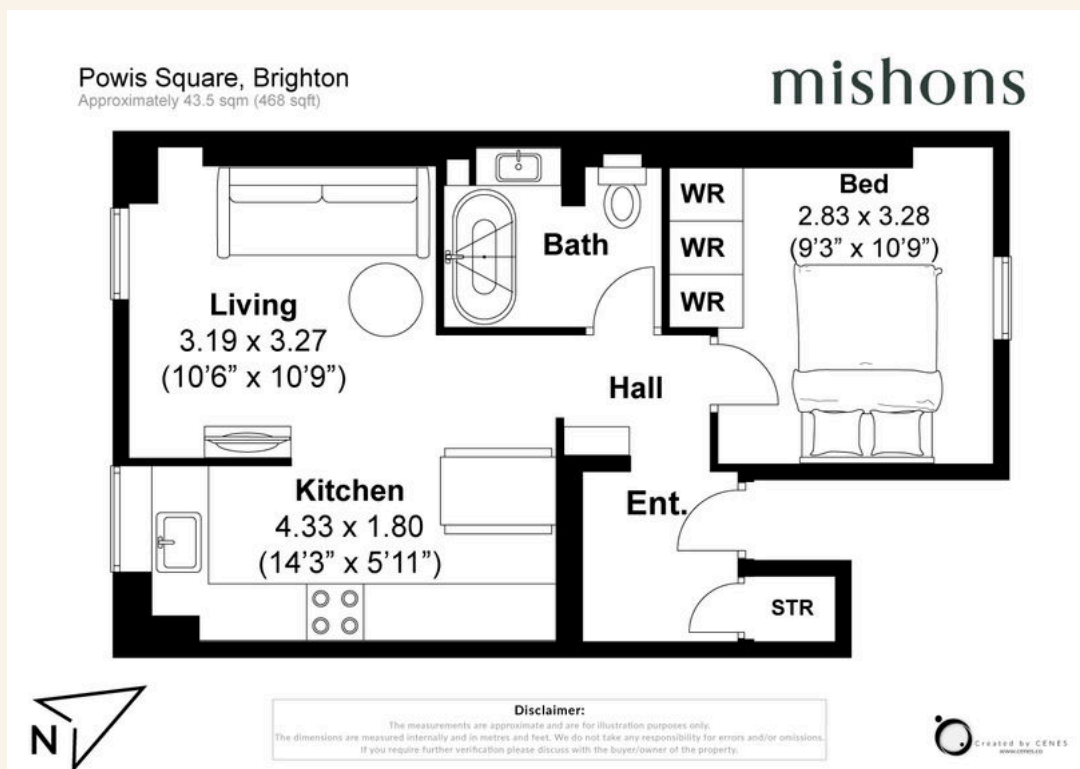

Whether you're a first-time buyer, downsizer, or looking for a stylish Brighton base, this flat offers the perfect mix of comfort, convenience, and character.
