Stylish One Bedroom Period Apartment in a Prime Central Location

Set within an attractive period building on Montpelier Street, this spacious one-bedroom apartment combines elegant original features with a fantastic central location close to Brighton Station and the popular Seven Dials district.

The home enjoys beautifully proportioned rooms with high ceilings and character fireplaces that enhance its charm and sense of space. The bright living room offers plenty of room for both relaxation and dining, while the separate kitchen provides a practical and well-laid-out space for cooking.

The generous double bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room, creating a comfortable and private retreat.

Perfectly positioned for city living, this charming home is moments from a wide range of cafes, bars, and local amenities, making it ideal for commuters, first-time buyers, or as a stylish pied-à-terre by the sea.
