Bright, versatile maisonette in the heart of Hove with share of freehold.

Boasting approximately 58 sqm (626 sqft) of well-arranged accommodation across two upper floors, this stylish duplex apartment on Lorna Road offers bright and versatile living in the heart of Hove.

The second floor features a generous living room with space for both seating and dining, alongside a separate fitted kitchen. A spacious double bedroom and a well-presented bathroom sit off the central hallway.

Stairs rise to the third floor, where the principal bedroom enjoys privacy and attractive proportions, creating an ideal retreat.

Positioned within a sought-after residential street, the property enjoys an excellent location close to all Hove amenities, including a broad selection of independent cafés, shops and restaurants, with Hove Station within easy walking distance for convenient commuter links. Add to this the nearby green spaces and seafront, and the lifestyle offering is superb.

A great opportunity for first-time buyers, investors, or those seeking a central Hove home with character and convenience.
